Women Voters Petition For 10,000 Signatures

By Muriel Burrows

The League of Women Voters of Prince Georges County is sponsoring with the Citizens Committee for Good Government an all-out drive to obtain 10,000 signatures on a petition to put the issue of charter home rule for the county on the ballot this November. Signatures are now being solicited on week-ends at the Center from registered voters, and there will be a door-to-door campaign throughout Greenbelt after Registration Day, May 25.

The League feels that a charter would be a permanent grant of legislative power to the county and place responsibility on a local level, thus bringing it closer to the people of this county. This clearer definition of responsibility should lead to better administration.

At present, legislative responsibility is divided between the County Commissioners and the Legislative Delegation to Annapolis from this county. Our county laws must be passed by the entire Maryland Assembly, whereas under home rule county laws would be made here in the county.

Our county's rapid growth and urbanization requires a local government, the League believes, which can better cope with the resultant complexities and the need for increased services. By bringing government closer to the people, it is expected that it will be easier to obtain better services for our communities through efficient use of our tax dollar.

To acquaint local citizens with the new traffic code enacted by the city council two weeks ago, the Cooperator is printing the code in sections. The first two sections were reprinted last week.

(c) It shall be unlawful to double-park any automobile, truck, or other vehicle on any street or highway within the corporate limits of the City of Greenbelt.

(d) It shall be unlawful to stop, stand, or park any automobile, truck or other vehicle on the left side of any street or highway facing oncoming traffic within the corporate limits of the City of Greenbelt.

Citizens Assn. Plans Transportation Survey

A poll of transportation habits and needs of Greenbelt commuters will be taken by representatives of the Greenbelt Citizens Association, it was announced this week by Matt Amberg, chairman of the committee on the Washington-Baltimore Parkway.

A "random sample" of 388 citizens will be taken to gather facts concerning (1) how many residents work in Washington, (2) at what time they must report to work, and (3) where they work. The information is needed to provide a basis for discussion with representatives of several bus companies that will use the new Baltimore Parkway, Amberg said. The Citizens Association is attempting to get Greyhound or Trailway buses to stop for Greenbelt passengers to and from Washington in order to alleviate the acute transportation problem for the city's commuters.

A meeting of the pollsters will be held at the home of George Reeves, 2-C Eastway, on Friday at 8:30 p.m. Additional help is needed for the poll, and interested citizens are urged to contact Matt Amberg, 9367, for information.

Baptists Plan Vacation School

Stewart will serve as principal and will be assisted by a number of workers from the local church and the Metropolitan Baptist Church, of Washington, the sponsoring church. Children of all ages are invited. The school is free. Plans include a nursery for babies.

Parkwayites Awarded Damages In Assault

By Mel Panlasigui

Clyde and Shirley Bourke, 16-B Parkway, were awarded $650 in damages last week in a civil action against Rose Lotzi, 19-E Parkway, by the Circuit Court for Prince Georges County, Upper Marlboro. The jury decision was handed down Friday, May 7.

Mrs. Lotzi was charged with an unprovoked assault upon Mrs. Bourke on August 22, 1953, thereby inflicting physical and mental injuries. The defendant pleaded self-defense.

The damages sought by the plaintiffs were for medical expenses incurred after the assault. Judge F. Gray presided at the hearings.

Bourke, a senior at the University of Maryland, was manager of the Greenbelt Parkway apartments at the time the incident occurred. The Bourkes and the Lotzis were then next-door neighbors.

Bourke was about to show an apartment to Richard Nolt, 20-D Parkway, who was then a prospective tenant, when they heard a knock on the Bourkes' apartment door. Bourke opened the door, and Mrs. Lotzi entered and attacked Mrs. Bourke. Nolt testified as a witness at the hearings.

Mrs. Lotzi was later fined for felonious assault by the criminal court in Hyattsville.

Walton League Wants Land Grant For Cabin

The Izaak Walton League has requested the city council to approve a grant of land so that a log cabin can be built by the League for their meetings. In a letter to the city council, the League stated that logs will soon be available from the proposed development programs in Greenbelt, and the Waltonians need a place to hold meetings and continue their conservation work. The city manager will meet with the League members and discuss the problem, it was decided.

Citizens Assn. Asks PHA Safeguards In Proposed Sale of Greenbelt Land

The Greenbelt Citizens Association Monday night, unanimously passed a resolution authorizing its Greenbelt Development Committee to meet with representatives of the Public Housing Administration to discuss specific requests of the Association regarding the 818 acres of undeveloped land recently opened to public bid by PHA.

Another feature of the meeting was a discussion of charter home rule for Prince Georges County by Mrs. Jane Hunt, representing the Greenbelt Unit of the Prince Georges County League of Women Voters.

Asks Direct Sale

The Development Committee will request PHA to follow the provisions of Public Law 65 (passed by the 81st Congress) which authorizes the PHA Commissioner to negotiate a direct sale of the land to a veterans non-profit organization—GVHC in this instance—at fair market value, for ten percent down, with a 4 percent twenty-five-year mortgage. Although GVHC has repeatedly requested the purchase of the 818 acres on such a basis, and congressional intent is clear from the public hearings when the legislation was under discussion, PHA has so far not followed its authorization in regard to this land.

If PHA again refuses a negotiated sale to GVHC, the Development Committee will request that the plan of Greenbelt's original Town Planner, Hale Walker, be followed essentially. PHA will be asked to amend its public announcements; and to covenant into its deeds of sale restrictions to permit light and heavy industry only in the areas designated in the plan, dedicate 160 acres to the city as a forest-land-conservation area as reserved in the plan, and restrict the development of the remaining acreage to single one-family homes.

Zoning Regulations

PHA will also be requested to amend its announcement to include the zoning regulations of the County Commissioners regarding this land and the Greenbelt City Council resolutions of March 10, 1947 and November 2, 1953 which give notice to prospective developers as to the types of development permitted.

Charter Home Rule

Mrs. Hunt was originally asked to appear to support the charter home rule proposal, but since no one appeared in opposition, she also pointed out some of the minor disadvantages.

The League, she said, supports charter home rule in preference to legislative home rule. Gov. McKeldin has indicated that if charter home rule does not pass this fall, he will support legislative home rule. Mrs. Hunt's main objection to the latter was that any state assembly can revoke it at any time, while charter home rule is permanent, once passed.

The League attempted to muster enough support for charter home rule two years ago but failed. To get on the ballot, charter home rule needs 10,000 signatures, or 20 percent of the registered voters in Prince Georges county.

Five To Draft Charter

If charter home rule gets on the ballot this fall, Mrs. Hunt stated, five candidates will be elected to help draft the charter. Any name supported in writing by 2,000 registered voters automatically goes on the ballot. The 2,000 signatures can support an entire slate as well as an individual. The Prince Georges Commissioners also can nominate a slate in addition to those put forward by petition.

The Sobeloff Commission, according to Mrs. Hunt, has recommended charter home rule for all counties in the state. If home rule passes this fall, there will be a six-month period of discussion of possible subject matter of the charter. Then, there will be an additional year of discussion of the charter as recommended by the five-man board, and the final decision will be strictly up to the voters.

Many questions came from the floor, mostly in reference to the extent of authority of the five-man board to include in the charter what it saw fit.

Two Important Reports

Also reporting Monday night was Harry Weidberg, who recently attended the meeting of the Prince Georges County Civic Federation, of which GCA is now a member.

Matt Amberg told of the forthcoming survey of Greenbelt to determine what bus transportation local citizens will require when the Baltimore-Washington Parkway opens this fall.

Opening the meeting was a documentary film showing the successful struggle of Arlington, Va., civic groups to get a better school system.

Park Agency Promises Fence Along New Road

Greenbelt will have a chain-link fence between it and the new Baltimore-Washington Parkway along side McDonald Field, the National Capital Parks informed the Citizens Association this week. Matt Amberg, who reported the Parks agency letter to the Association meeting Monday night, said that budget limitations have prevented the determination of how long the fence will be. However, he said, the agency considers that the fence is a necessity, and City Manager Charles McDonald plans to discuss the problem further with the agency in the near future.

Time Marches On Greenbelt

Although we may be dubious about the circumstances under which it has happened, Greenbelt is now definitely in the national spotlight. Not only is the story of our community and the Chasanow case featured in a big spread in Time magazine; but on last Thursday afternoon our town was also mentioned at length in a phase of the nationally-televized McCarthy-Army hearings.

We were particularly interested in the Time article, which reviewed the beginnings of Greenbelt as well as discussing the controversial case that the Washington papers spread over their front pages recently. Our interest, of course, is aside from the fact that the Cooperator has received mention in a national magazine. As might be expected from a magazine of Time's caliber, the facts in the story are brilliantly presented. In addition, Time's pungent style struck hard at what it obviously believed was the chief aspect of the case.

However, there is an implication in the story which we believe may give the thousands of readers of Time the wrong impression of Greenbelt. The articles did not, or perhaps could not, make clear that the bitterness of Greenbelt's stormy period is largely a thing of the past—at least, we have every reason to believe that this is so. Ever since The Great Move of last summer, when hundreds of residents moved out of Greenbelt because they did not wish to purchase homes here, a new spirit has begun to transform the city based principally on the pride of home ownership. Those who felt that Greenbelt offered something only as long as they could live here under low Government-subsidized rents, or who violently objected to the management of a cooperative housing corporation, have left. Those who remained and the newcomers who have since joined are now helping to plan and are looking forward to a greater Greenbelt.

On the other hand, we believe that Time's statement that "in Greenbelt, where most of the residents are Government workers, the suspensions (of Chasanow and others) cast a pall of fear and dismay" is unfortunately generally true. As we indicated in our front-page editorial of a few weeks ago, the Government employees here are concerned that a false impression of Greenbelt may have been created by the publicity. They fear that Greenbelt may be regarded as a "queer" place with an unhealthy atmosphere. Such fears, if not put aside, could lead to the destruction of our community spirit.

It is to be devoutly hoped that the people of Greenbelt will not succumb to these fears. No one can be certain how all this will work out, but it could be that Time will tell.

Off to fabulous Las Vegas, Nevada, for a four-week vacation go Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Nuzzo of 12-G Ridge and their two children on May 22 to visit friends and relatives there. They should have some interesting tales to tell of that wild and woolly city when they get back.

Long-time residents of the 12 court and others of that area will be saddened to learn of the death of 15-year-old Kenneth Lee Raber, son of "Chub" and Katherine Raber who used to live at 12-J Ridge. Kenneth was killed early in April in a freak accident when the brakes of a car in which he was riding failed to hold while going down hill. He was thrown out of the car and died instantly of a broken neck. The Rabers, who visited here last summer, moved to Maytown, Penna., three years ago. They have another boy, a year older than Kenneth.

Two Gardenway families—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallant of 5-E and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bernard of 1-H—visited friends and relatives in Boston recently.

Mrs. Henry T. Moore of 33-D Ridge enjoyed an exciting week in New York City visiting friends last week.

Greenbelters certainly get around. Just returned from a two-week vacation in Mobile, Ala., are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Karitas and their daughter Katherine of 2-D Southway. While there they celebrated the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mrs. Karitas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Leavitt of Mobile.

Young Tommy Bingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bingham of 20-K Hillside, is recuperating from an appendicitis operation last week at the Sibley Hospital in the District.

Members of the Mowatt Methodist Church are getting really excited now that their long-awaited new church building is almost in sight. Recently the board of trustees met with Dr. Phillip Edwards, District Superintendent of the Washington East District, to discuss the final phases in respect to the financing of the new building. We hear that contracts are already in the works for the construction of Unit One, which is expected to go up in the near future. All of us of all faiths are eagerly looking forward to the new building as a decided asset to the community.

Speaking of the Methodists, officers of Methodist Men for the coming year will be elected at a meeting of that group to be held on Monday, May 17, at the home of James Boyer, 9-B Research.

Jeanette Zubkoff is back home after almost a month in Buffalo, and Harry is no longer a bachelor.

On Sunday, May 9, members of the Korean M. E. Church of Washington, whose minister is Rev. Henry H. Oh, held services followed by a picnic at the Greenbelt Lake.

The dinner consisted of all Korean dishes, and games were held for the children and adults.

Among those present was Philip Han, Korean minister to the U.S.

Baptist Chapel Has Extended Program

In order to make room for newcomers and prospects, new departments have been added to the Greenbelt Baptist church program.

Council Asks County Action On Welfare

A request to the county commissioners to spend about $10,000 for welfare cases in the county will be made by the city council this week. At a city council meeting last Monday night, Mrs. Haward Hunt, council representative for welfare in the Community Chest council, reported that a grave problem existed in the county, because of lack of funds. "It is terrible to think about, but it is possible that children in Prince Georges county are starving," she declared.

Mrs. Hunt reported that a recent meeting of welfare representatives disclosed that public welfare agencies do not recognize the acute unemployment situation in the county. As a result they will only supply needed funds to "unemployables," that is, people that cannot get gainful employment because of illness or other serious inconvenience. This situation has forced private agencies to expend sums beyond their capacities, until there are no funds left.

The county commissioners have a fund of $13,000 which is allocated for welfare cases, Mrs. Hunt declared. Of this sum, only $3000 has been spent, it is reported, and welfare agencies are urging the commissioners to allocate the remaining sum to public and private agencies for this emergency.

The city council instructed the city manager to send the county commissioners a letter requesting that the unspent funds be allocated to proper public and private charities for needy cases in the county.

Little League Baseball Opener This Saturday

By E. Don Bullian

Baseball will officially arrive in Greenbelt on Saturday, May 15, at McDonald Stadium, with all the fanfare, parades, bands, etc. that go with an opening game. Greenbelt's Little League has planned in its first game of the 1954 season all the pomp and ceremony of a Big League Game. Commissioner George Preston has indicated that he will try to fill the shoes of Bill Moore (quite a job) to the best of his ability. He seems to be well on his way with an excellent program for the opening day.

The parade will start at Gardenway and Ridge at 12:30 p.m., proceed through Centerway and up Southway to McDonald Stadium. The competing teams, Coop and Athletics managed by Bernie Emmert and Bud Dean, will march in uniform with all the teams preceded by the Greenbelt Band and the Boy Scouts, who have been selected as color bearers. The Coop team will start infield practice at 1:15 followed by the Athletics at 1:30. At exactly 1:45 former Commissioner Bill Moore will present a trophy to the Most Valuable Player of the 1953 season. This is Bill's last official act as Commissioner and it presents an opportunity to commend him for the great job he has done. His performance is all the more noteworthy in that he was Commissioner during the formative years of the Little League with all the problems and growing pains that every new organization goes through. Bill Moore did an excellent job as Commissioner of the Little League and Greenbelt and the Little League are grateful.

At 1:50 Mayor Lastner and City Manager McDonald, escorted by Boy Scouts, will raise the flag in center field. The playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and the throwing out of the first ball by Mayor Lastner at 2 p.m. will start the 1954 season of Greenbelt's Little League.

The Little League consists of eight teams divided into two sections, the American League and the National League. The American League will have its Home diamond at Braden Field while the National League calls McDonald Stadium its home. The following list of Managers and their teams indicates the possibilities for an outstanding season. Every one of the coaches has worlds of experience and an intense desire not only to have a winning team but to develop good ball players. Each Coach will have 15 players ranging from 8 to 12 years of age.

Pirates, Lou Tierney; Coop, Bernie Emmert; Athletics, Bud Dean; Wildcats, Mel Taylor; Tigers, Hoppy Hofstetter; Giants, Bill Marshall; Indians, Chet Speziale; Red Birds, Bob Halpin.

Bud Dean and Bob Halpin are the newcomers with Bud taking over George Preston's duties while Bob took over Bob Kelly's post. The Little League also conducts a Minor League that has been placed in the capable hands of "Chuck" Link. He has approximately 45 eager youngsters between the ages of 7 and 9 who look forward to joining the "Big League" teams. Youngsters interested in the Minor League may call 3076.

First Week Schedule

Americans at Braden - Monday, May 17, Coop vs. Athletics; Tuesday, May 18, Wildcats vs. Giants; Wednesday, May 19, Coop vs. Wildcats; Thursday, May 20, Athletics vs. Giants.

Nationals at McDonald - Monday, May 17, Indians vs. Red Birds; Tuesday, May 18, Pirates vs. Tigers; Wednesday, May 19, Indians vs. Pirates; Thursday, May 20, Red Birds vs. Tigers.

All games start at 6 p.m.

Babe Ruth Sluggers Feature Sat. Clinic

Babe Ruth League practice was a rousing success last Saturday morning at Roy S. Braden Memorial Field. One spectator was overheard to remark that "There must be over a hundred kids out there!" The impressed onlooker missed by several, but it was the best turnout so far and the number necessitated doubled-up hitting practice to give all the "Bambinos" a chance to bat.

Fred Slaugh, Richie Fonda, Dale White, Barry Petroff, Bob McKenzie, Wesley Hogan and Bill Sandilands to name a few, got in some Ruthian swats that augur lofty summer BA's.

It is a little early yet to select the permanent four squads: Co-op Super Market, Co-op Service Station, Co-op Variety Store and Co-op Drug Store. Loop directors are, however, contemplating placing the lads on temporary teams to facilitate more organized practice sessions.

Thus far there are six candidates each for the positions of pitcher and first base! Only four aspire to don mask and mitt. How sure of a job can you be? Very few lads are, thus far, "out" for short-stop, third and second bases. Many are in the garden club. Seriously, there is plenty of room and chance for many more 13, 14 and 15-year-old boys in this Babe Ruth League.

The season doesn't start until summer vacation. Games will be played Monday through Friday mornings at 10 o'clock. Uniforms for the four teams have already been purchased and all the league needs to make it go is a lot of young muscle.

New candidates procure "contracts" at the City Office or down on Braden Field at the regular Saturday morning practice sprints. All Babe Ruth Leagues please return signed contracts, insurance money and birth certificates AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. Birth certificates will be held in safe keeping and will be returned as soon as National Babe Ruth League requirements have been met.
